E.T. Horn to Represent the Dr. Paul Lohmann Company

Company to Distribute Dr. Paul Lohmann Mineral Salts Throughout the Western United States

La Mirada, CA - April 16, 2008 – The E.T. Horn Company, a leading distributor and manufacturer of ingredients for the nutraceutical marketplace announced that it has reached an exclusive agreement with the Dr. Paul Lohmann Company to represent and distribute its full line of mineral salts in 12 western states. Effective immediately, E.T. Horn will cover Texas, New Mexico, California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, and Colorado. The company will distribute and market the new product line through its Nutraceuticals Group.

Dr. Paul Lohmann produces a full range of high quality mineral salts that are GMP and ISO certified. The company offers value added capabilities such as custom blending, micronization, granulation, triturations, and micro-encapsulation that will complement E. T. Horn's position of offering its customers superior ingredients and valued technical expertise.

Since mineral salts are increasingly being sought for use in dietary supplements and functional foods, E.T. Horn is happy to be adding the Dr. Paul Lohmann Company as a Principal partner.

"The demand for additives and specialty minerals has really taken off," said Steve Lester, Vice President of Standard Ingredients for E.T. Horn's Nutraceuticals Group. "To fill the need of providing mineral salts to our customers, we searched worldwide and determined that Dr. Paul Lohmann is the number one choice. We are proud to have their line in our portfolio."

Dr. Paul Lohmann-USA President Jerry Cohen summed up the new alliance by expressing his confidence with E.T. Horn's abilities. "We had a void in the western US, but this problem has been transformed into a giant opportunity. We have superior products, so we want it to be represented by a superior company. E.T. Horn's long standing reputation, expertise, and the commitment to put the customer first qualifies them to do just that," he concluded.
